

Key to the Huture

Keys open books, locks, and start cars. The key that opens the door to education also is the key to the future. Through learning and experiencing, one can find the right key; the key that entitles the holder to "unlock" the world and all its potential happiness. Thus, the key to the future can be found through education.

Blithe Spirit

Blithe Spirit

While collecting material for a new novel, Charles Condomine has a seance performed by Madame Arcadi. Madame Arcadi produces Charlie's first wife, Elviria, and this becomes the major problem of the play. Ruth, Charles' present wife, is a terror to live with since the arrival of Elviria. Confusion and laughter reign throughout this 3 act farce by Noel Coward.

Christmas Activities

T'was a few days before Christmas and we had a choir come and sing for us. They were called ISU Girls Choir.

Other music consisted of Students from the High School in the Madrigals.

Christmas Dance

The Shaggs played at our Christmas Dance. Everyone dressed mod for the evening. The gym was decorated to fit the atmosphere.

A large crowd gathered to dance and listen to the Shaggs. Pictures were taken and autographs given out. Pizza was served in the cafeteria. It was a Christmas Dance we will never forget!

"Barefoot

The 1968 Spring play was by far the best play C.C.H.S. has had in a long time. The almost true-to-life acting of Steve Long was very beneficial to the play's success.

"Barefoot in the Park" is the hilarious adventures or misfortunes of a beginning lawyer, Paul, played by Steve Long, and his new bride with a one-track mind. The couple move into their "new" unfurnished apartment. Visits from the telephone man became inevitable. The visits from the "Cool old man from the attic became more profitable when Corie sets up a blind date for her mother who doesn't really like the idea of baby Corie untied and married. But all in all the play was very good and well-produced.

THE CAST and DIRECTORS

Deborah Smith - Corie Bratter

Pam Harbach - Corie's Mother
Phil Bell - Telephone repairman

Holynesian

"Polynesian Paradise" was the theme of the Junior-Senior Prom of 1968. The Juniors worked very hard for one complete week to produce one of the nicest proms Clinton High has ever had. The Senior class was honored that night by the Junior class and everyone danced to the music with excitement and splendor in their formals and tuxedos.

Graduation

Commencement exercises for the Class of '68 were held on Friday, June 7, 1968, in the Gym at 8:00 P.M. Following the invocation by Reverend Winston Zastrow, Molly Stillman gave the Class President's address. After Greg Lichtenwalter delivered the Student's welcome, the band played "Valiant Years". This was followed by short speeches by Janet Daniels and Dwayne Robinson. Mr. William McNealy, Clinton High School Principal, delivered the Message to the Class. Then the diplomas were awarded to the seniors by Mr. Fred Price. The program was completed when the Class of 1968 sang "Alma Mater".
